The Department of Workforce Development to Sponsor a Labor Law Clinic for Employers

MENOMONIE - The Department of Workforce Development (DWD) and Workforce Resource will co-sponsor a Labor Law Clinic for area business leaders and employees on October 19, 2005, from 8:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. Labor Law Clinics are educational seminars focusing on topics chosen by local employers, such as the basics of Wisconsin's Fair Employment Law, workplace harassment, deciding eligibility for unemployment benefits, and understanding the principles of Wisconsin's worker's compensation law. The clinic will be held at:

Phillips Plastics Origen Center
428 Technology Drive East
Menomonie, WI 54751

Clinic Topics

- Deciding Who Is Eligible for UI Benefits
- An Overview of Wisconsin's Labor Standards Law
- Workplace Harassment
- Understanding the Principles of the Worker's Compensation Law

Presentations provide an initial orientation to the topic. Speakers are “hands-on” experts working within the program area and are available to respond to a wide range of questions about their programs. Extensive resource materials such as employer handbooks, brochures and other legal references are available free of charge.

Registration for the clinic is required and there is a $77 per person fee. A registration form is available from the DWD web site dwd.wisconsin.gov/laborlaw. To receive notification of future clinic dates, an email subscription service is available through the web site.
